Impact of Political Debates

Reporter: PP Jan Feyler

Jacki Rose

Jacki Rose has received the highest designation as a speaker from Toastmasters International. She talked about speaking with PEP—Power, Energy, and Passion. And to prepare, prepare, prepare. Content should be researched, the desired outcome should be determined, speech prepared, put in logical order. Know the content “cold.” Develop a strong opening to grab the audience’s attention and a good closing. Memorize both, but don’t memorize the content of the speech. After writing the speech, practice it out loud several times. When presenting the speech, have good, organized notes. Show passion for the subject in your voice. Appear confident. Feel good about what you’re wearing. Carry a clock so you don’t go over the time allotted.

Antiliano Estrella offered the Invocation.
